Plate Sharing

The UU Urban Ministry (UUUM) is an organization based in Roxbury that is housed on the site of an early UU church. Its mission is to "work across race and place to dismantle racism and white supremacy culture, as well as to advance racial, economic, and social justice." UUUM's vision is "a Greater Boston where all people live with freedom and dignity and have equitable access to resources and opportunity to shape the present and the future."

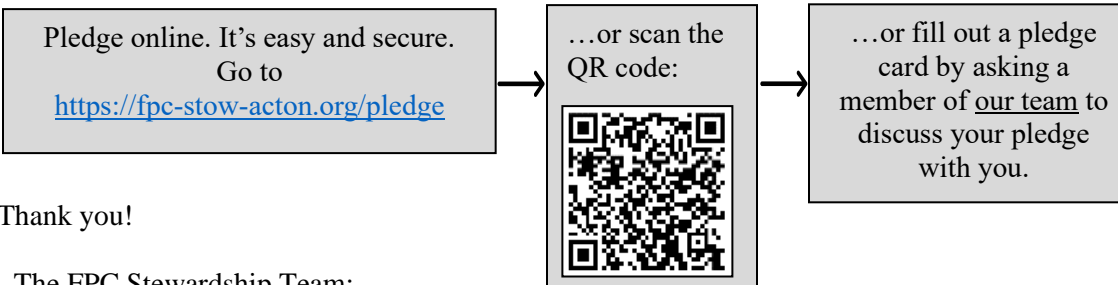

The UUUM was founded almost 200 years ago by Rev. Joseph Tuckerman, with the focus of empowering the underprivileged citizens of Boston while transforming the social consciousness of privileged residents. Today the UUUM focuses on providing safe shelters and workforce development programming for survivors of domestic violence, specifically Renewal House.

UUUM also provides academic enrichment for youths of color through their Roxbury Youth Programs. And UUUM provides programming for various arts and humanities grounded in a social justice message, including providing exhibits of local artists' works.

“Centering on Love: A Look at Changes in the UUA” - Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Landrum - As the second year of the process of revising Article II of the UUA Bylaws is underway, it's worth looking at the meaning behind and the reasons for the shifts we're undergoing. Why are we talking about replacing Principles with Values? This service will explore the issues at stake in the upcoming vote in June.

Upcoming Events

Fri 3/1 Gender Roles and Identity Discussion, 7-9 pm, Community Room & online
Join Our Whole Lives (OWL) facilitators Hector Constantzos and Rebecca Stadolnik for a lively discussion of gender identity and gender roles, how they have changed in recent years, and the impact each has on how we relate to the world and each other. For example, how do your genetics (eg, xx, cu, other) relate to your gender (or do they)? Come join us to share your ideas and broaden your understanding of these topics.

Fri 3/8 FPC's Arts Committee is calling for creators!
We encourage participants of ALL AGES to submit arts or crafts that utilize recycled/upcycled materials in some way.

This is your opportunity to be creative and wacky and have fun -

- ▶ What can you make from that old plank of wood?
- ▶ Or that jar of old keys or nails?
- ▶ Or that piece of fabric or old clothing that's been lying around forever?
- ▶ Or that old canvas or that Clorox container?

The sky's the limit and anything goes! No rules (except "family friendly").

See our ad in This Week at FPC for the link to submit!

Sat 3/9 New Revival Coffee House, 7:30 pm, Fellowship Hall

The Clements Brothers are returning to the Coffeehouse, bringing their close harmonies and intimate sound. George and Charles Clements are identical twins from New England who have been playing and writing music together for as long as they can remember.
