First Parish is a Unitarian Universalist Association Welcoming Congregation. We warmly welcome gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender people into our community.

Large print orders of service and hymnals are available from an usher. Assisted Listening Devices are available when worship is in the Sanctuary.

FPC currently has a masks-optional policy throughout the church. In the Sanctuary, several back rows with accessible seating are "mask-required."

FPC is on the web at fpc-stow-acton.org and on Facebook.

Anthem

“Like a Mighty Stream”
Moses Hogan and John Jacobson

FPC Choir
Chris Hossfeld
Music Director

Lift ev'ry voice and let us sing!
In ev'ry song let freedom ring!
From ev'ry soul comes a noble dream
Let justice roll like a mighty stream.

Like a mighty stream.
Let justice roll like a mighty stream.

Oh, ev'ry trial we'll overcome,
When ev'ry child beneath the sun,
And ev'ry soul shall live as one.
The noble dream has just begun!

Like a mighty stream.
Let justice roll like a mighty stream.

SGM Registration deadline EXTENDED to Sunday January 25!

Looking for more social connection? Try SGM to get to know yourself and a small group of 8-10 people from FPC and UCMH more closely. New groups form each year and meet once a month for 2 hours starting in February. Facilitated discussions have included topics such as Living Simply, This Body, and The Gift of Time. Great way to have someone to chat with at any church event such as coffee hour.

- Current SGM group members, please re-enroll for 2026. You can request the same group or get to know a new set of friends. Feel free to invite a friend to join a group with you.
- We are looking for a couple more SGM co-facilitators. Please let Karen know if you are interested, want to know more, or want to recommend someone.
- Register by January 25th online <https://fpc-stow-acton.org/sgm>
- Questions or to help us better understand your needs - stop by the SGM coffee hour table or contact Karen Kinnear, SGM facilitator, sgm@fpc-stow-acton.org

Plate Sharing

Bridges to Malawi is a nonprofit organization dedicated to bettering the lives of the people of Malawi through multiple service projects, including an annual Medical Mission Trip, agricultural projects, projects to deliver electricity to remote areas, projects to increase the number of livestock, and many more: "We are a small, committed group of American health care professionals and extraordinary Malawians. With your help, we are making a difference in Malawi, one of the poorest countries in the world." [bridgestomalawi.org]

FPC's liaison to Bridges to Malawi is Annadelia Ruminski, who was one of the high school students given the opportunity to travel to Malawi with founder Dr. Brian Lisse and multiple other doctors on the annual medical mission trip. Annadelia hopes to share more about BTM in a service this month and provide an opportunity for FPC members and friends to donate some of the supplies that BTM brings to Malawi in April 2026.

Submission Deadline for February Chronicle - Wed, Jan 21, 5 pm

Please email your submissions to Meg at office@fpc-stow-acton.org

Ukulele Meetup - Wednesday, January 21, 7 – 9pm, Community Room

Pat Sorn and Sue Stewart, Coordinators - FPC hosts monthly ukulele gatherings for ukulele players wanting to practice with other players. Uke lovers of all levels (including beginners!) are welcome to come and play, sing, and share music with the group. We have extra ukes for anyone who'd like to try them out. If not, you can just come and sing along!

Line Dancing Evening - Saturday, January 24, 7 pm

Join us for a chill-busting Arts Committee-sponsored evening of line dancing led by the incomparable Paul Hughes! A family-friendly event, open to all ability levels and friends from the community. Paul is very skilled at making even the most novice dancer feel like Fred Astaire or Ginger Rogers! Beverages available, and we would love it if some folks could bring some snacks to share.

This event is free, but donations to cover Paul's fee will be gratefully accepted.
Suggested: $5 per person.

Turkey Hill Ragtime Orchestra - Sunday, March 15, 4 pm

The FPC Music Committee is proud to present Suzie Cartreine and the Turkey Hill Ragtime Orchestra in concert in the Sanctuary. Toe-tapping fun for the whole family!

The Orchestra plays vintage arrangements of ragtime music and popular songs from the 1890's – 1920's. That includes rags, fox-trots, slow drags, two-steps, waltzes and more, and features works of Joplin, Salisbury, Lamb, Turpin, Berlin, and others. They put a smile on your face and a spring in your step!

Founded in 2022, Turkey Hill Ragtime Orchestra sprang from pianist Suzie Cartreine's lifelong love of ragtime, combined with her academic interest in historical performance practice.

The band is drawn from a roster of professional-level musicians from the Greater Boston area. Recent appearances include the New England Folk Festival, Chelmsford Open Spaces, the Medford Library Summer Concert Series, and numerous porchfests in the Boston area.

Suzie Cartreine was Director of Music and Organist at FPC from 2002 to 2011.

The suggested donation is $20 to $40. Donations will be accepted at Eventbrite, at the door, and at coffee hour on March 8 and March 15.
